ONE AWESOME NEW PACK - THIN BLUE LINE

Designed from the ground up with guidance from operators, special forces, infantry, and training officers. The 28 liter (18" x 9" x 11") main compartment is ideal for stowing your primary gear, securing a 3 liter bladder (sold separately) or for inclusion of the optional 9" x 11" hard or soft ballistic plate to create the protective "arm shield." Field operators know that organization is a top priority. The internal admin panel serves as a "field office" for your documents, pens and other office material. Outside lower pocket measures 10" x 12", with inside padded, zippered pouch for tablet or phone. Two smaller external pockets can hold any number of smaller everyday items, and a heavy duty "grab-and-go" top handle allows you to pick up and go at a moment's notice.

This packs utilizes our special, Mil-spec poly material; meaning they are scuff resistant, water repellent, and double stitched at stress points to ensure this pack can handle whatever you throw at it. The laser die-cut MOLLE attachment system is large enough to handle travel requirements and compact enough to throw in the overhead. Padded, adjustable shoulder straps with attachment loops and a mesh padded back panel guarantee maximum comfort with airflow and lumbar support. When adjusted and secured properly, these packs become a part of you; run, jump, roll, they are made for hard use and you won't be disappointed. Weight just under 4 pounds.

SECTION SIX

The Future of America,

Everyone here at Voodoo Tactical would like to extend our gratitude and appreciation for the young shooters we are so privileged to partner with. These young shooters and their parents are shining examples of what this country is really made of. They practice for countless hours and use their vacations to drive their children to competitions all over the country. These young shooters do not whine when it's too cold, they do not cry when they lose, they will practice harder and win the next one. They say "yes sir" and "thank you ma'am" and have an air of confidence that only hard work and dedication can provide. Each time we meet them at a shooting competition, Shot Show or the NRA Show, we come away with a renewed confidence and hope that there is still a chance America will again rise up to its potential and live by the principals that this country was founded on.

So we say to you, keep up the good work mom and dad. To the young people we admire and believe in so deeply, don't ever give up, don't back down, keep up the good work, and never let the negative non-believers stand in your way. You are the future of this country and with your dedication, hard work and sacrifice, the future looks bright ahead.

With our admiration and respect, thank you.

VOODOO TACTICAL EVERYDAY KNIFE

To increase the performance of this compact tactical EDC. We replicated the internal steel liners into a distinctive skeletonized aluminum handle.

This reduced the weight by one third and increased its appeal five fold. With the 3.5" liner locking anodized blade, a non-reflective matte black finish, spine jimping and the superior spring assisted opening, we were well on our way to creating a bestselling folder. The final touche is a rigid stainless steel drop point blade (57-59 RC) with plain edge, for wet stone sharpening in the field and stainless steel clip for tip down carry.

VOODOO SELF-DEFENSE KNIFE

A recent addition to the Voodoo Tactical family products is the Voodoo Self-Defense Knife. A thicker blade with a spear point is more of a general purpose knife. However it does have tactical applications that are useful in field. When designing this knife, quality and affordability was a must. We considered the amount of abuse it would be subject to and how often the knife would need sharpening. We settled on 3.5" 8CR15MOV stainless steel blade with a hardness of 58-59. It is mildly resistant to corrosion and is easy to sharpen with a thick 5.00 mm blade. A steel liner lock snaps the blade in place and holds it secure for the most demanding tasks. Thumb jimping and a knuckle notch gives you the ability for deep and effective penetration. The G10 knurled handles provide a secure grip even when wet. A non-reflective black oxide coating is applied to the blade and handles.

Blade measures 3.5" Overall measures 9". Folded measures 6"L x .75"W x 2.5"H.
